

New GranBering Integral from Costan

The flexibility of a tour to the built-in group that combines with the high aesthetic and technical performance of the solutions remote: these are the hallmarks of the new GranBering Integral of the Epta Group. A "plug and play" one of a kind that enriches the detailed proposal at all Times of the GranFit Family with a bank to the frozen, fully integrated and easy to install, ideal for supermarkets, small and medium size.

GranBering Integral is characterized by an avant-garde design, excellent load capacity and maximum visibility, thanks to the doors all the glass, can enhance the appeal of references, exposed and capture the attention of every Customer. In addition to responding to the needs of the shops of proximity and convenience, GranBering Integral is available in two deep, Narrow and Compact, in lengths of two or three doors and has a mobile head with three ports GranBering Integral wonder, finally, for its low energy consumption guaranteed by the use of the refrigerant propane R290, 100% natural and low GWP. The provision of a compressor of the latest generation is an added value that promotes the highest efficiency.